March 7th 1876.

Dear Mr Garrison,

I am made quite ashamed, on looking at the date of your kind note, to find that I have left it many days without acknowledgment.

The warm sympathy of friends was very welcome, alike in our days of affliction, and in the

I have received a kind letter from your friend, Mr Albright. Rev. W.<sup>m</sup> Stokes of Manchester writes that we had better try to hold our Women's Peace Congress in the Autumn. I wished to get from your son-in-law some names of persons in Europe, especially in Brit-land, to whom I might send my circulars and documents, but he was rejoicing that pleased them. I hope that good only will result from this voyage, and that I shall never see more of the Commission without as a discrimition.

We are to have a hearing at the State House on Thursday 9th inst, at 10.
A.M. We shall be very glad to see you on that occasion.

willing to call and see me with respect to these matters. I believe in my movement is a more true one, for the French & German opinions seem to be hardening into an mutually hatred which will lead to when the generation to come. For I with my small school, printed in various languages, ~~whereas~~ I can hope that it may be kind readers. Believe me, dear Mr Garrison, cordially yours John Ward Howe.
